The Firepit is a contemporary, fine dining, sharing-plate experience. All the flavours of world cuisine meet and fuse in our indulgent, re-imagined menu. The smokey, barbecue aromas of the American west combine with the delicately spiced tastes of the far east to create ambitious dishes that excite the tastebuds and showcase the finest in global cooking.

Chef John Bingley and Maitre'd Sergio Gomes help bring this exciting new epicurean concept to Canterbury. Our bold and indulgent sharing menu delivers experimental dishes which do not disappoint. Our inspiration is vibrant and relaxed with an edgy and sophisticated spirit.

“There is no sincerer love than the love of food.”

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

LOVE TO SHARE

Here at the Firepit, our ethos is all about great food, great company and sharing experiences. We see dining as an opportunity to stop, reflect and connect with others. Whether it be with family and friends, colleagues, strangers or lovers, we know that sharing a number of dishes rather than eating from your own plate makes for a more enjoyable and social affair.

Each dish on our diverse menu is prepared with sharing in mind. We recommend ordering at least 2 dishes per head, to be shared and enjoyed by the table.
